

PARENT PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT

The Parent/Student Handbook is posted on the website www.ccsliions.org under About CCS/Policies. Parents/guardians and secondary students are expected to read the Handbook and to abide by the rules, regulations, and standards outlined there, including financial, discipline and computer/Internet policies. Students and parents/guardians found to be out of harmony with the school's Biblical doctrines and philosophy of work and life, as outlined in the Handbook, may be required to withdraw if the administration determines it to be in the best interest of the student, parent/guardian, the school, or its staff.

I/We understand that:

- Covenant Christian School educates students from a distinctive reformed Biblical world view. Please carefully review the Covenant Christian School Philosophy Statement and Core Values as these represent foundational principles for education at CCS.
- Christian education is an active partnership between school, families, and church.
- The Covenant Christian School budget relies on four essential revenue sources: tuition, parent pledges, fundraisers, and gifts.

I/We agree to:

- Support the standards of the school in its philosophy and policies as outlined in the Parent/Student Handbook and in the Lower School/Upper School Instructional Program Handbook.
- Support the school in its attempts to train my child in the Christian faith by example and prayerful encouragement.
- Partner with the school by assuming the responsibility for my child's education, e.g. by overseeing assigned homework, being an encourager, and initiating regular contact with my child's teachers.
- Be involved in my child's education through attendance and participation in the various activities of the school, including meetings held for parents at my child's grade level.
- Support the school, to the best of my ability through prayer, volunteering of time, and participation in fundraising activities.
- Faithfully commit to my tuition payment plan to ensure my child's continuous enrollment at CCS for the year.
- Pay tuition for the entire semester even if my child withdraws from CCS before the end of the semester.

Parent Certification

I/We agree to support CCS in the above covenant statements, class placement or potential success of this child at Covenant Christian School.
